

A large, ornate religious float (cofrer) carrying the Virgin Mary of the Remei, surrounded by angels and cherubs, during a festival in Llíria. The float is highly decorated with gold leaf and intricate carvings. The Virgin Mary is the central figure, wearing a long, patterned gown and a large, ornate crown. She is flanked by two angels, one on each side, and several cherubs are positioned around the base of the float. The float is being carried through a street lined with multi-story buildings, and a large crowd of people is gathered around it, watching the procession. The scene is festive and celebratory.

Festes
en honor a la Mare de Déu
del Remei

50 aniversari de l'entrada de la nova imatge a Llíria
1948-1998